

LOVING ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

A book is an irrepressible sprouting, a burgeoning of growth from unnumbered plantings. So, I express intense gratitude for all the family and friendship forces that have impacted deeply on my life and on this small volume . . .

In particular, I thank my sister, Mary Leila Wolf, and my Sisters Ethna O'Dougherty, Fran Jacobs, Anne Cecile Daigle, Margaret Ellen Traxler, Rita Boudreau, and Diane Tourigny. Each, somewhere along my life's journey was there when I needed love and encouragement. They confirmed me in my belief that the experience of COMMUNITY is the true joie de vivre and essence of Christianity . . .

I express deep appreciation for thirty years of growing with the Sisters of the Holy Names of Jesus and Mary and for their continuing love as I journeyed forth to pioneer another style of Community-in-Christ. I thank the many bishops, priests, brothers, and sisters in congregations throughout the world who have warmly affirmed me when our paths crossed . . .

Finally, I thank each SISTER FOR CHRISTIAN COMMUNITY, —each woman of stout heart and indomitable spirit who put her shoulder to the task, her hand to the plow, her courage to the purpose of furrowing and seeding new fields for the WORD and the spreading of authentic Christian Community, —the CHURCH RADIANT . . .
